

Dr. Taki adjudged as Oman's Outstanding Researcher

by: Dr. Romeo C. Castillo
Editor, E-Gazette

Dr. Taki Al Abduwani,
Dean, Gulf College, Sultanate of Oman

The rarity of his outstanding academic expertise paves him the route to Palawan, Philippines to put him significantly in the eminent array of highly known researcher thus conferring him as an outstanding researcher in the Sultanate of Oman organized by IAMURE Multidisciplinary Research. An honor that inks a record in the Sultanate. His extraordinary presentation of his paper reaching a bizarre new height is reflected from his continued effort in exploring opportunities to strengthen the catalytic role of small and medium enterprise in the country.

He reiterated in his paper that the small and medium enterprise is a device in the world market economy which subsidizes the viable growth and employment generation in Oman. It refers to the strategies of entrepreneurship as regards to the role of SME towards the developmental programmes in the Sultanate of Oman. In this particular study, a descriptive survey design was utilized to sustain a methodical portrayal of what is involved in the collection of primary data through a questionnaire.

Dr. Taki hopes to sustain his dynamism in meeting today's fast-paced business environment and in developing stronger economic programmes despite tremendous domestic and international challenges.

Being an outstanding researcher is an honor and will inspire his colleagues and GC students to boost positive development not only in Oman but also in the entire Gulf region.